SAINT-BACCHUS 2013 – Results Revealed!

128 selected wines, 21 awarded

The results of the prestigious 2013 Saint- Bacchus contest were announced on Friday, June 7 at the “Palais des Expositions” in Perpignan.

After travelling the globe for the past 6 years and stopping in Paris last year, this prestigious competition made its way back home to Roussillon. A blind tasting by the “Maîtres Tasteurs” of Roussillon was done on Saturday, June 1 at the Clos des Lys in Perpignan to establish the annual Saint-Bacchus selection. The Grand Jury then chose the wines to be awarded. This is the first year that the results were kept secret until Friday, June 7. The announcement was made the night of Saint-Bacchus that 21 appellations out of 128 were awarded!

Dominique Laporte, who carries the prestigious titles of “Best French Sommelier and “Best French Worker” in her field, headed the jury. It was also composed of a multitude of wine professionals (Journalists, sommeliers, wine merchants).

After much anticipation, chefs, winemakers and the general public all heard the announcement at the Saint-Bacchus dinner that 21 appellations were awarded. In preparation for the big event, 12 chefs from the region prepared 20 special dishes to be paired with the wine selection. The dishes and wines were enjoyed by the attendees at an unforgettable buffet dinner that evening.

Saint-Bacchus

Created in 1984 by the ‘Maîtres Tasteurs’ of Roussillon, Saint–Bacchus includes the most important annual selection of Roussillon’s wines: AOP Côtes du Roussillon, AOP Côtes du Roussillon Villages, AOP Collioure, AOP Maury, AOP Muscat de Rivesaltes, AOP Rivesaltes, AOP Banyuls, and IGP Côtes Catalanes and Côte Vermeille. Over the years, it has become a major event in the industry.
